

To: District 47 Archives

From: Indian Valley Group

History of Indian Valley Friday Night Meeting

Sometime around 1980 the Bucks County Counsel on Alcoholism held a forum on alcoholism at the Jerusalem Lutheran Church in Almont. The pastor of the church was so impressed by the forum that he recommended that a AA meeting be started there. He contacted the right people and got things underway. Among the original members were Les J., Denny A., Bill W., Ralph O'M., Harvey K. and Bill I.

An Al-Anon Meeting was started at the same time. The AA Group met in the church and the Al-Anon met in a trailer behind the church.

It immediately became apparent that the facilities were not adequate for the two meetings. After about three years (1983) an AA named Mac spoke to the pastor of Little Zion Lutheran Church about the possibility of moving the meeting there. The pastor readily agreed. The two meetings moved to Indian Valley in approx. 1983.

Little Zion Lutheran Church has two large meeting rooms that are used by AA and Al-Anon, and excellent kitchen facilities. Both meetings have thrived in this environment.

Pete R.

Indian Valley Group

Sometime around 1980 the Bucks County Counsel on Alcoholism held a forum on alcoholism at the Jerusalem Lutheran Church in Almont. The pastor of the church was so impressed by the forum that he recommended that an AA meeting be started there. He contacted the right people and got things underway. Among the original members were Les J., Denny A., Bill W., Ralph O'N., Harvey K and Bill I.

An Al-Anon meeting was started at the same time. The AA group met in the Church and the Al-Anon met in a trailer behind the church.

It immediately became apparent that the facilities were not adequate for the two meetings. After about three years (1983) an AA named Mac spoke to the pastor of Little Zion Lutheran Church about the possibility of moving the meeting there. The pastor readily agreed. The two meetings moved to Indian Valley in approx. 1983.

Little Zion Lutheran Church has two large meeting rooms that are used by AA and Al-Anon, and excellent kitchen facilities. Both meetings have thrived in this environment.